

TEACHER'S DAY 51st CMOS Congress

Tuesday, June 6, 2017
 Hilton Toronto Downtown
 York Room

AGENDA

- | | |
|-------------|---|
| 0800-0830 | Registration |
| 0830-1000 | Plenary Session
Claire Martin – OK Granny, Listen Up
Steve Goodman – GOES-R |
| 1000-1030 | Break |
| 1030-1045 | Welcome and CMOS Educational Programs
Sheila Bourque, Education and Outreach, CMOS |
| 1045-1145 | SESSION 1 – Teaching Weather: Educational Resources at Your Fingertips
Geoff Coulson, Environment and Climate Change Canada |
| 1145-1245 | SESSION 2 – Shocking Buildings – The Way of the Future?
Brandon Law and/or Jim Young, RWDI |
| 1245-1345 | Lunch |
| 1345-1445 | SESSION 3 – The Ocean is My Garbage Dump
Katrin Knickmeier and Katrin Kruse, Kiel University |
| 1445-1545 | SESSION 4 – Arctic Ocean: A cold dive in the green
Julie Sansoulet and Joannie Ferland, Takuvik |
| 1545-1615 | Break |
| 1615-1715 | SESSION 5 – Fake Weather News - Teaching teachers to spot the cheaters.
Claire Martin, Former On-Air Meteorologist |
| 1715-1730 | Closing Remarks
Jim Young, Chairman, Private Sector Meteorology Committee, CMOS |
| 1800 – 1930 | PUBLIC LECTURE – Changing weather extremes – why it isn't an 'alternative fact'
Francis Zwiers, Director, Pacific Climate Impacts Consortium University of Victoria |
| | LOCATION: Hilton Toronto Downtown |
| 1930-2200 | Dinner (on your own) |